STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1896.

NO. 3

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—There will be communion services at Walnut Flat next Sunday.

—Rev. T. N. Compton held a meeting at Sebree at which 22 were received into the Baptist church.

—Rev. G. W. Robertson, aged 79, and a minister of the Baptist church for 51 years, died at Bardstown.

—Evangelist Moody has canceled his engagements at both Hopkinsville and Owensboro on account of the grip.

—The new Midway Christian church, one of the handsomest in Kentucky with a seating capacity of 600, will be dedicated April 12.

—The Somerset papers report 225 conversions and sanctifications at the Morrison meeting, which is eclipsing all previous evangelistic efforts there.

—The Atlanta negroes who expected to ascend to heaven are still in this vale of tears, but their leader is under arrest for taking their money.

—The will of Dr. Sutton, which was under contest at Versailles last week, was sustained and the Presbyterian church will get $40,000 of his estate.

—The official directory of the Roman Catholic church in the United States puts the membership of the church at 9,410,790 or one in seven of the entire population.

—The Christian Crusade is the name which Ballington Booth has given to his new evangelical movement with which he hopes to supersede the salvation army, from whose command he was fired.

—Elder V. W. Dorris, pastor of the Nicholasville Christian church, who has been conducting a series of meetings at Angola, Ind., is meeting with remarkable success. Up to last Monday night he had 59 additions. A gentleman who is highly educated and had been an infidel of the most pronounced type for years, was converted under Bro. Dorris' preaching.—Journal.

—Three armies of the Lord are warring on the cohorts of the devil at Nicholasville. Rev. J. H. Hopper is holding forth at the Presbyterian church, while the Northern and Southern Methodists, led by Revs. Ben Halm and J. G. Culpepper, respectively, have combined their forces and the sinner who escapes them will deserve damnation. A great many conversions are reported and the good work goes on.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—At Oakland, Cal., Edward Hack, a love sick youth, shot his sweetheart through the heart and then fired a bullet through his own brain.

—J. C. Hartsfield is a Carlisle county man who is a husband for the sixth time at the age of 50 years. Miss Sallie Flood, aged 36, of McCracken county, is No. 6.

—On his trial for bigamy at Kansas City, it was proved that H. C. Wilmoth, in the last nine years under as many aliases, had married nine wives, each of whom he deserted after obtaining what money she had.

—Because Thompson Phipps, of Hazel Green, was most favored by a belle of that place, the young lady's other suitors took him from her house, where he was calling, and after binding him hand and foot across a salt barrel, whipped him almost to death.

—A mob of 500 men and boys, mostly colored, tried to mob Elder Tanner, the negro preacher who predicted the end of the world at Asheville, N. C. They were mad because the event did not come off on time.

—Will Purvis, the Mississippi white cap, who twice escaped death on the sciohoi, has been placed in the penitentiary at Jackson. It is believed Gov. McLaurin will commute the sentence to life imprisonment.

—Allen Lewis, proprietor of the Lewis House, at Hyden, was shot and instantly killed there Friday afternoon by Abe Pace, aged 17. The tragedy was the outcome of longstanding strained relations between the families. Pace is a cousin of Mrs. Lewis.

—When James Dewitt was given a death sentence at Grayson for the murder of his wife, he thanked the jury and added that he wanted to die, that his murdered wife was always before him and her dying screams were constantly in his ears, and that if the jury had not decided to hang him he would ask for a new trial.

—Fears are expressed for the safety of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's big liner, City of Rio Janeiro, which left San Francisco February 6, and should have reached Yokohama February 23. The vessel had on board 156 persons and was heavily laden. Not a word has been heard of her since she left San Francisco.

—There are wars and rumors of wars everywhere. There is revolution in Cuba; rebellion in Nicaragua; threats by Russia against Japan's acquisition of Corea; ugly menaces by Spain against the United States; initial hostilities by France against Brazil; war far advanced between Abyssinia and Italy, and no settled peace yet between the Porte and the Powers acent Armenia; nor between the United States and England acent Venezuela; nor between the Transvaal and England about Jameson's invasion.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Mamie Royston has commenced a three months school at Mt. Hebron.

—The ladies' aid society will meet Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jacob Robinson.

—Miss Mary Newland entertained at her country home in honor of a number of her friends one evening last week.

—Elder Jesse Walden goes to San Francisco, Cal., to assist his son-in-law, Elder R. M. Campbell, in a series of meetings. He left yesterday for the Golden Gate.

—The Delarue entertainment that was to have been given by Miss Glascock on the 13th, under the auspices of the aid society of the Christian church, has been postponed until next month.

—The date of Mr. Charles Allen Thomas' lecture on "Wonderland and the Isles of the Pacific Ocean" will be Friday evening, March 20th, instead of the 27th, as we last reported it.

—Mr. James F. Miller sold a large yoke oxen to Mr. Az Leavell last week for 2½ per pound or $93. W. S. Ferguson recently sold to Burnam & Rucker, Paint Lick millers, 600 bushels of wheat at 75c delivered.

—The train that left here for Richmond in the afternoon and returned at night will very likely be put on again. It seems that we may yet be able to rejoice a little over the change, even if nothing better happens for us.

—The members of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday evening in the S. S. rooms of the church to do some choir singing. There are many excellent voices in the choir and their object will be to lengthen their repertoire.

—A two weeks session of court commenced yesterday and the following is the docket: 22 old Commonwealth cases, 18 new Commonwealth cases, old common law, 11, new common law, 41, equity appearances, 29, old equity cases, 115.

—Rev. W. P. Nelson, the new Presbyterian minister, continues to give satisfaction and delight to his hearers by his earnest, forcible sermons. He has recently fitted up a nice inviting library in the front room of the basement of the church.

—H. Clay Sutton is gradually rising to a name and fame. He recently wrote a story for the Cincinnati Enquirer entitled "A Cuban Vendetta." It proves that the piece must be quite meritorious by being accepted and well paid for by this widely circulated paper.

—O. P. Stone sold a young mare to Samuel Kayes for $30; Frank Folger bought of Ephriah Anderson 15 sheep at $1.75; James Payne bought of Tilden Davis a horse for $45; B. E. Covington bought of O. P. Stone a mare for $30; Mr. Brooks of Jessamine, bought a mule of Thomas Stone for $70.

—Lancaster hopes soon to send two able representatives to some of the contests that are soon to transpire during the spring. One is a gifted young elocutionist, who only last summer won a gold watch, in the contest at Stanford, and the other is a young orator living within a few miles of Lancaster.

—The many friends here of Miss Hatte Vaughan rejoiced with her over the news that she has just had profered her by G. V. Bradley. It will be in the medical department in the Hopkinsville Asylum and her duties are connected with the office of Dr. Ben Letcher. Miss Vaughan is a frequent visitor in our city and was also a resident for a number of years.

—The mention of the recent death of R. A. Watts, of Louisville, brings up some of the old residents of this community. While young, Mr. Watts married Miss Margaret Mills Anderson, daughter of Hon. Simeon Anderson, Congressman from the Lancaster district, and a grand daughter of ex-Gov. Owlesley. Governor Owlesley was for a long time a citizen of Lancaster and the home he occupied is in the Southern suburbs of this city.

—It seems that a cooking and training school is a much needed addition to this community. Recently a young married woman of this city undertook to cook some rice. Not having handled this article of food before and not knowing of its swelling qualities, she put on three pounds for one meal. The rice began its ebullitions until first one cooking vessel and then another was called into service, until the capacity of the kitchen utensils was exhausted. Such was the large quantity of this grain that rice was the principal dish for a number of repasts and this young dame is somewhat satiated with the Chinaman's chief diet.

—Mrs. S. P. Grant, of Danville, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Price, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Severance, of Stanford, were in our city Sunday. Mrs. A. H. Price left Sunday to join her husband at Nicholasville.

Mrs. W. T. Browning, of Nicholasville, is at the bedside of her sister, Miss Bettie Anderson, who continues quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Russell, of Boyle, are guests of friends here. Mr. John Archer has returned to Harrodsburg.

Miss May Gill is visiting Misses Paty and Margaret Burnside at Barbourville.

Mrs. Lizzie Allen and daughter have returned from Jessamine. Miss Fannie Cochran, of Madison, is visiting Misses Jennie and Lucy Arnold. Mr. Burdette Powell and sister, of Hustonville, are guests of Mr. J. C. Thompson and family. R. E. Thompson is with relatives in Mt. Vernon. Mrs. John Frances has returned to Madison after paying a visit to her sister, Mrs. Sarah Leavell. Mr. T. J. B. Turner has returned from a lengthy stay in Fort Worth, Texas. Dr. D. B. Bosworth, of Knoxville, was here Sunday. Mr. R. H. Batson has returned from Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denman, of Nicholasville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex West. Homer Baughman, of Boyle, was here Sunday.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—April 14 will be Centre College's field day.

—The next encampment of the State G. A. R. will be at Somerset, May 19.

—Rollin Miller was shot and killed by Josh Ingram at Milltown, Adair county.

—Gov. Bradley has accepted an invitation to address the West Virginia League of republican clubs at Charleston, March 35.

—H. W. Wilson died at Columbus at about the same hour that his daughter, Mrs. John W. King, passed away at Owenton.

—Judge Sanfley decided that Burgin was not a loyal option town, but the trustees contradicted him by refusing to grant license.

—The Register says that H. J. Twigg, a young Englishman, is preparing to start a possum ranch and raise the little animals for sale.

—John S. VanWinkle, late of the Somerset Reporter, is a candidate for delegate from the 11th district to the National democratic convention.

—The sentence of death imposed upon John Walker, formerly of Lawrenceburg, Ky., at Kearney, Neb., has been commuted to life imprisonment.

—Russel Bellmore, the young telegraph operator, who was shot at the Danville depot two weeks ago, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Cincinnati, as a result of his wounds.

—Mr. Horten, of Ebanks, has a canning factory entirely of his own make, in which he put up 10,000 cans last year, and he says if the farmers will furnish him with the fruit he will do more this year.

—The body of Robert A. Watt, late secretary and treasurer of the Louisville Railway Co., was brought to Danville for interment. Mr. Watt married a daughter of the late Congressman Anderson, of Lancaster.

—Capt. J. C. Bryant, of Ashland, raised we believe in Lincoln county, seems to have gone over entirely to the enemy after calling himself a red hot democrat all his life. He will likely be made the member from the 9th district of the republican State central committee.

—Clint Todd, who killed his son in Rockcastle county, was held over under bond of $500. It was claimed that George went to the old man's house and told him he had come to thrash him for treating his mother badly, when the father whipped out a knife and stabbed him to death.

—A stock company has been formed for the erection of an opera house. The site of the "Old Ark" has been bought for $2,500, and upon it is to be erected a building 60x100 feet, and it is to be three stories high. The whole thing will cost from $12,000 to $14,000, the Odd Fellows are strong leaders of the enterprise and take $7,000 stock.—Somerset Paragraph.

—Leslie Pigg, son of W. W. Pigg, a Richmond merchant, walked into the Reese House bar at Winchester and asked for a glass of water which he drank after dropping a tablet into it. He then invited the bystanders to join him in a drink of whisky, when he placed another tablet in his. Soon he began to show effects of the drug he used and in a couple of hours was dead.

—Recognition of the Cuban patriots as belligerents does not mean war with Spain by the U. S., but simply implies a recognition of the fact that a state of war exists, and that equal consideration should be given to the two parties engaged in it. Thus the Cuban patriots will be allowed to send vessels into the ports of the United States just the same as Spain is permitted to do, and private traders will be allowed to sell them certain kinds of goods. But neither side can buy arms, ammunition, or any other military supplies in this country.

—It will also be the duty of the United States government to prevent any fitting out of expeditions in our territory for the assistance of either party; and our merchant ships will be open to search on the high seas for articles contraband of war.

—A warehouse belonging to the Union Warehouse Company, of Louisville, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $150,000. The building was full, and the contents, consisting of tobacco and merchandise, partly insured.

—There were further demonstrations in Valencia, Spain, Sunday against the United States. Trouble at the United States consulate was prevented only after a desperate struggle between gendarmes and the mob.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Mrs. J. P. Spraggins, mother of Mrs. James Frye, died Sunday afternoon, aged 61.

—Little Charley Newburn fell last Saturday into a rainwater barrel at the home of his father, Dave Newburn. He was rescued, but narrowly escaped drowning.

—Since our last letter Allen & Lyons have sold to J. T. Page & Co., through Autony Hunn six 700 pound cattle at 3c. Also they sold to Di Ingram 19 cows and heifers at 2½c.

—George Goode, who has been living in Cincinnati for some time, had his furniture, which he left behind, sent to him this last week. George now has a position as conductor on a street car line and is doing well.

—Millard Allen has traded for a hand-some bus and when the weather opens up will send it to meet all trains over the Cincinnati Southern at Moreland. He says he had to devise some means to enable him to compete with the livery men at Moreland and McKinney.

—The meeting at the Presbyterian church has steadily grown in interest and attendance. The evangelist, Mr. Luther, seems to please everybody by his clever and plain presentation of the gospel. Eleven had professed faith in Christ up to last Saturday and many more indicated that they were interested in the meeting.

—Little Katherine Thomson, daughter of Mr. Matt Thomson, while playing on the veranda in front of John Reid's residence last Thursday, fell from the second story to the rock pavement beneath, striking on her face and cutting a large gash in her chin and knocking out several teeth. At first she was thought to be seriously injured, but is not now considered to be dangerously hurt. She had a narrow escape.

—Jag. Grimes sauntered into town a few days ago and proceeded to enjoy a drunk of large proportions. On being arrested and searched he was found to have both a gun and a razor on his person. He was fined $25 and costs and this so incensed James that when he was shown to his room in the hotel on the Beat that he proceeded to demolish everything he could lay hands on in the way of furniture. Being unable to pay his fine he still languishes in durance vile.

—Miss Ida Twidwell has returned from a visit to Danville. Wm. Weatherford has been quite sick with grippe. Jas. Goode has been confined to his bed with severe case of neuralgia. Mrs. Wash Brown has been quite sick. J. B. Cook was up from Lawrenceburg Sunday. Judge Camnit has been sick for several days. Mr. Tomlinson, who keeps the cemetery, is very low. Mr. and Mrs. James Frye and Mrs. Arch Frye, who have been visiting in Texas, returned home Thursday. Mrs. Col. Weatherford, of Ennis, Texas, is here, being called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Spraggins. B. F. Blakeman was in our town a few days last week.

—John Martin, a farmer living near Clarksville, Tenn., is 54 years of age, has been married four times, and is the father of nine girls and 15 boys. Friday night his wife, who is 46, presented him with a girl, making her the mother of six girls and 15 boys.

—When the people show their wrath in Europe, the ministry usually resigns.

They did so in Italy. It was announced in Rome last night that Gen. Ricotti had succeeded in forming a new cabinet. Marquis di Radini will be at its head as Premier.

—Alexander Moore, of Hamilton, O., was born on the 13th day of the month, is the father of 13 children, is a member of the 13 club and is the leader of a drum corps of 13 members.

—During 1895, according to the Custom House records, 239,845 cases of champagne were imported into the United States. Munn's Extra Dry leading the list with 79,049.

—Five generations of one family are living on a homestead at Bardstown, Ga. The head of the family, W. O. Cherry, has 136 living descendants.

—During Hi Henry's street parade at Maysville a horse became frightened at the music and ran over and fatally injured 10 year old Sam Lindsey.

—Traveling local salesman to sell our goods on commission. Side line or exclusively. Liberal terms. The Howard Oil & Grease Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

—James L. French, Alton, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal panacea for coughs, colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations." Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Episcopal church for 70 years and have never found anything to benefit me as much as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this ideal cough remedy. Trial bottles free at W. B. McRoberts' drug store.

STANFORD, KY., MARCH 10, 1896

W. P. WALTON.

THE only result of the effort by the sound money members to get Blackburn to withdraw was a further widening of the breach between the two factions. Blackburn made a speech recounting all the mighty works he had done for the democratic party and how he had always stood by its principles even when it became necessary to stand in blood. "For its triumph," he said, "I would trample under foot every personal ambition and give up life itself," but added, "I may be in error, but under the existing conditions I do not believe that any democrat save myself can be elected. I am firmly resolved that no republican shall be." Aye, there's the rub. You can never make him see otherwise than that the democratic party will go to the demotion bow-wows, unless he leads it otherwise. A number of very intemperate speeches were made, that stumped up a conglomeration of ignorance and self-conceit, Jack Gross, becoming peculiarly offensive and that red headed and vain glorious turkey cock, Bronston, even going so far as to refer to John G. Carlisle as the boss traitor of them all. The result was that nearly all of the sound money men voted next day for the boss traitor, reducing Blackburn's vote to 48, the two populists voting for Pettit and 63 republicans for St. John Boyle. All hope of Blackburn's election, if there were ever any, have gone glimmering and the republican prospect is not much better. Blackburn's successor will not be elected by this Legislature. That much seems to be absolutely certain.

OCCASIONALLY we read of a Federal soldier, who doesn't think that the earth and the fullness thereof belongs to those who claim to have fought for the Union, and when we do we like to make honorable mention of him even if we can not write his name in letters of gold and pictures of silver. Mr. Andrew VanBibber, known to all newspaper men as the best roller maker in America, himself a gallant ex-soldier, writes in a letter to the Richmond Register: "In reply to your question as to how I feel on the pension question I would say that I feel just the same as ever. I think that two-thirds of those now pensioned were amply compensated by their army pay. I think that the men who got plugged with bullets and the families of the killed, both in the late and every future war, ought to be pensioned. I believe that one-third of the present appropriation would pension all of them well. With the balance of the money we could have a first-class navy, have well fortified ports, and be able to talk to any nation." All honor to such a soldier and patriot as Andrew VanBibber, of Cincinnati!

GEN. JOHN B. GORDON says that, "in view of Gen. Walker's declarations, self-respecting ex-Confederates will find it impossible to take part in the proposed joint parade of veterans at New York. No Confederate, self-respecting or otherwise, would force himself where he is not wanted, especially with hide bound, narrow minded, so-called soldiers, who are much more warlike in peace than they were in war. Gen. Peyton Wise, chairman of the Virginia executive committee for the arrangement of the reunion, denounces the action Gen. Walker, of the G. A. R., and says he is deserving of the censure and condemnation of all good people. It has been 31 years since the war closed, but it will never be over with the skulking cowards, who trade on continued bad feeling between the sections."

THE fifth jury which Dr. Massie has faced at Owenton since he killed Jesse Honaker in a most cowardly manner, fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. He ought to have been hung long ago for the crime was committed in 1891, but each of the four times that he has been convicted the court of appeals has come to his rescue and on the flimsiest technicalities reversed the finding of the jury. For the sake of law and order, a quenching of the mob spirit and for the atonement of the blood of a poor man who was torn from his family, it is hoped that the court of appeals will throw away its microscope and let the judgment stand.

LAW MAKING AT FRANKFORT.
FRANKFORT, March 9, 3 P. M.—Senator Rozel Weissinger died very suddenly today. He had been in bed sick several days, but his condition was not regarded as serious.

—Mr. King's bill to protect the inclosed grounds and premises of common school districts was passed.

—The Senate passed an amendment to the pharmacy laws, extending them to all towns and villages in the State.

—Brer Grider is trying to get an appropriation for the purchase of a pedestal for the monument to be erected at Washington to the memory of Gen. Green Clay Smith.

—It was reported in Frankfort that $50,000 had arrived there to be used in an effort to secure votes for the republican nominee. The story was denied at Mr. Boyle's headquarters.

—Young Mr. Foree, of Shelby, can hardly expect to succeed J. B. McCreary as Congressman from the Eighth, unless he climbs down out of the free silver band wagon at Frankfort.—Louisville Post.

THE Exchange Hotel at Richmond, Va., for 50 years one of the most noted hotels in the South, is about to end its famous career by closing its doors to the public. In the race for patronage, it has for some time been outclassed and its historic halls, which once echoed the footstep of the most noted people of the State and country, have for several years been almost silent. It has been run at a loss till bankruptcy has overtaken it. Before and during the war it was the home of the most noted aristocrats. The leading Confederate and cabinet officers stopped there and every governor nominated in Virginia for a life time had his headquarters in it. The Prince of Wales was its guest in 1859 and the goblet from which he sipped his first mint julep was kept and shown with pride. No one who has ever been in the old building will forget its quaint appearance nor the bridge which spanned the street to its annex, the Ballard House. The location grew to be a bad one and its surroundings for years have not comported with its ancient grandeur. It was a day in its day, but its glory has departed and in future it will likely demonstrate to what base uses we may come at last. Sic transit gloria mundi.

POPULIST POOR voted for Blackburn Saturday for the first time and a scene of the wildest excitement ensued. Seeing a chance to elect him sound money democrats changed their votes, and it seemed so certain that Blackburn was elected that the Associated Press sent out a bulletin that he was victor. But Dr. James and Speaker Blanford were equal to the occasion and changing to Carlisle begged the sound money democrats and the republicans to do likewise. This checked the stampede and the ballot resulted Blackburn 60, Boyle 59, Carlisle 5. The democrats forced a second ballot, but the republicans broke the quorum and the result was Blackburn 43, Carlisle 15. And so it came to pass that even with his two populist friends Joe didn't make good his promise of election.

JUDGE BUCHWALTER decided at Cincinnati that Jackson and Walling, the alleged murderers of Peerl Bryan, must come over the river and face a jury either in Judge Helm's or Judge Lynch's court, but set next Saturday for a hearing on habeas corpus proceedings. The learned judge refused to let a negro be brought back to Kentucky to answer a crime, on one occasion when Brown was governor, for fear he would be lynched, but he doesn't seem to be so particular with his poor white trash.

If all the delegates to the republican convention attend the pow-wow at Lexington, April 15, who are named, no building there will be able to hold the unwieldy body. There will be 1,699 and as they think they see a chance for pie, it is likely that every bloody son-of-a-gun will be there. The representation will be one for every 100 votes cast for Bradley or fraction thereof, making this county entitled to 16.

To the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL—We see your $15 and go you five better that Dick Carpenter goes into the Legislature, if turned out, regardless of Jack Chin and his knife.—Pineville Courier. Taken, but all the same the republicans dare not begin the turning out process, which would make democratic retaliation necessary. They are afraid to give Dick the chance you seem to think he hopes for.

JOHN E. PATRICK, Esq., of Jackson, who married Miss Rose Richards, of Stanford, has announced his candidacy for Congress in the 10th district, saying that he prefers John G. Carlisle for president and is uncompromisingly for sound money. He ought to win on such a platform and we hope he will.

THE death of Senator Weissinger, which occurred yesterday, seems to give the election of U. S. Senator to the republicans if St. John Boyle can unite the full strength, which is doubtful, otherwise there is a chance for Blackburn or a democrat.

Senator Weissinger Dies Suddenly.

FRANKFORT, March 9, 3 P. M.—Senator Rozel Weissinger died very suddenly today. He had been in bed sick several days, but his condition was not regarded as serious.

—LAW MAKING AT FRANKFORT.

FRANKFORT, March 9.—Owing to the death of Senator Weissinger the ballot for U. S. Senator was formal only, Blackburn receiving 1, Boyle 1 and Pettit 1.

—The House passed a very foolish bill to compel railroads to carry passengers on all trains.

—Mr. King's bill to protect the inclosed grounds and premises of common school districts was passed.

—The Senate passed an amendment to the pharmacy laws, extending them to all towns and villages in the State.

—Brer Grider is trying to get an appropriation for the purchase of a pedestal for the monument to be erected at Washington to the memory of Gen. Green Clay Smith.

—It was reported in Frankfort that $50,000 had arrived there to be used in an effort to secure votes for the republican nominee. The story was denied at Mr. Boyle's headquarters.

—Young Mr. Foree, of Shelby, can hardly expect to succeed J. B. McCreary as Congressman from the Eighth, unless he climbs down out of the free silver band wagon at Frankfort.—Louisville Post.

Mrs. J. B. OWENS and Cabell Owens arrived from Bowling Green yesterday to visit Mrs. America Rout and other relatives.

MESSRS. ED WILKINSON and A. H. Sevance went to Burgin Thursday night, the latter to see the new K. of P. lodge organized.

MR. W. J. SPARKS, one of the hustlingest drummers on the road, was here on his regular tour Friday and took orders right and left.

MR. A. URBANSKY, of Louisville, was up yesterday to help Manager T. D. Raney and his corps of salesmen in the Louisville Store.

MR. W. H. PRETTUS was on yesterday's train en route to Lebanon, to which place he has been transferred from the Brodhead office.

MRS. S. S. MYERS and Miss Emily have arrived from North Carolina and the old man is happy again, while friends welcome their return.

DR. G. A. TRAYLOR and S. M. Owens went to Louisville yesterday to sell their tobacco. While there Mr. Owens will have his eye operated on again.

MR. JAMES DUDDEBARD, of the Maywood section, who has been in the clutches of the grip for a month, was sufficiently recovered to come to town yesterday.

MR. W. G. ROTON and his pretty daughter, Miss Mary, were in to see us yesterday, when the old gentleman renewed his subscription for about the 20th year.

THOSE who heard the speeches of Masters Thomas W. Varnon and Robert Harding Waters at the missionary party Saturday do not doubt that they are the coming orators.

E. J. FOLY, late in business here, has located in Mt. Sterling and says "I am doing four times the business I ever did in Stanford. More people are here in a day than come to Stanford in three months."

The report gained currency Sunday that Mr. E. B. Beazley was dead, but we are glad to state that it proved untrue. He had a severe attack of his old kidney trouble and was very ill, but was a great deal better yesterday.

MISSSES YOUNG AND PORTER, who have been very successful in the prosecution of their work in securing material for their Biographical Cyclopedias, will go to Lancaster to-day. They are elegant young ladies and deserve success.

CAPTAIN BEN D. MCGRAW, the clever gentleman who conducts the Blue Grass Special on the Q. & C., was here Saturday. He has been running that train for years and has by his gentlemanly manners made more friends along the route than anybody.

COL. AND MRS. J. W. CAPERTON gave a quiet but elegant dinner last Thursday to Miss Dollie McRoberts, of Stanford, who is visiting Miss Lena Baldwin. Misses G. Mamie and Lena Baldwin and Messrs. G. K. Shackelford and J. S. Crutcher were present.—Richmond Register.

FRANCIS CARE, who has been depot agent of the L. & N. at Richmond for 10 years, has been promoted to the Paris office and Kupe Hood, son of the superintendent, given the Richmond office. Mr. Carr married a sister of Mr. Joe S. Rice, one of the cleverest gentlemen who ever held down an agency.

CAPT. W. H. KIRBY tells us that his wife and aunt, Miss Mattie Thompson, who were called to Atoka, Tenn., by a telegram stating that Miss Thompson's brother, Mr. John Thompson, was very ill, got there just five minutes after he died. The deceased was 65 years old and left five grown children. His wife died a year ago.

THE sale of the watches and jewelry of Robert Fenzer created more interest than anything else yesterday and they sold well.

THERE will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Stanford Sunday night at the Christian church for the purpose of awakening interest in behalf of the Armenian sufferers. Short speeches by the pastors and others and good music will be in the program of the evening.

MOONSHINE WASTED.—Deputy Bill Stringer, one of the best in the business, and posse destroyed three moonshine distilleries in Jackson county and let 2,500 gallons of whisky and beer escape down the mountain side. Only one man was captured, J. M. Morris, and he was lodged in the London jail.

LINCOLN county is somewhat responsible for the present mayor of Louisville, whom the courts continue to turn down. The mother of George Todd, the beneficiary of death and the republican council, was a daughter of the late James Davidson, of this county, who was treasurer of the State of Kentucky, and she was born here.

BADLY BURNED.—Mr. George Baker, of Highland, who was here Saturday, told us that his 3-year-old son, Willie, fell in the fire while playing and had his hands badly burned. No one was present at the time and the little fellow would no doubt have burned to death had his clothes caught. Daisy, a little daughter of Mr. Baker, is very ill of typhoid fever.

It is telegraphed from Cynthiana that the first female declamatory contest ever held in Kentucky will shortly be held there. Lord bless their behind-the-time souls. Lige Beazley had one here nearly a year ago and the fact was emphasized by the production of the talented young woman's picture in the Louisville Times, who won first prize. Wake up Cynthianians.

THE Grace Wharton Mission Band

made $6 and more at their party Saturday afternoon by selling tickets at 5 cents each. The following note with a nice package of candy was sent to this office:

"We thank you very much for publishing the notice of our missionary candy party. We think it is very kind of you to oblige us little folks so much. We also wish to thank the ladies who assisted mamma in preparing the candy. They were Mesdames Lula Bright, Lillie Carpenter, Sallie Varnon, Allie Nunnelley and Talitha Root and Misses N. Vandevere, E. Beazley, L. Bruce, L. Peyton, M. and M. Bright and Tevis Carpenter.

The evening was spent in music, recitations, games and candy pulling. The talent of the other little societies of town came out and altogether, we had a delightful evening. Very respectfully, Alvira, Susan and Mary Van Arsdale."

DRUMMING PROHIBITED.—At an adjourned meeting of the council Friday afternoon, Marshal O. J. Newland's bond of $5,000 was accepted. Drs. G. W. Branaugh and Steele Bailey are his bondsmen. An ordinance was passed prohibiting any drumming for hotels, livery stables or anything of the kind in or around the depot, making the fine for such offenses from $1 to $5.

DR. LEE F. HUFFMAN writes to his brother, Mr. Al G. Huffman, that the Lexington papers greatly exaggerated his trouble with the folding bed. He says that he was badly squeezed and it was a minute or more before he could get his breath, but that the injuries received were slight. He also added that the bed was ready for shipment to any of his Lincoln county friends who have an enemy they want to rid the country of.

TO THE PEN.—Deputy Sheriff R. M. Newland will leave for Frankfort this morning with the following prisoners convicted at the term of court just ended: Jesse Belden, one year for stealing a diamond pin from Mrs. B. W. Givens, Hugh Jacobs, 18 months for shooting at intent to kill Zack Padgett, and Will Trice, who got two years each for breaking into the houses of Messrs. Samuel Helm and W. W. McKittrick. The two first named are white and the latter colored.

CAPT. W. H. KIRBY tells us that his wife and aunt, Miss Mattie Thompson, who were called to Atoka, Tenn., by a telegram stating that Miss Thompson's brother, Mr. John Thompson, was very ill, got there just five minutes after he died. The deceased was 65 years old and left five grown children. His wife died a year ago.

For a rarity there wasn't a hung jury during the trial, and Judge Saufley took occasion to compliment the jurors in the highest terms, as they deserved to be.

We must insist on those indebted to us settling at once, as we are anxious to close our business and must do it. Hughes & Tate.

It tried to snow a little Sunday, but soon gave up the effort and the sun shone brightly in the afternoon. Yesterday was an almost perfect day and the signal service says to-day will be likewise.

THE Delarue entertainment on the 20th will be for the benefit of the Armenian sufferers. The ladies of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian churches have the master in charge and will undoubtedly make it a success.

TELEPHONE.—Mr. F. M. Ware was here yesterday talking up a telephone line from here to Mt. Salem, to connect with the one to be established from there down through Casey and further on. It would doubtless be a good thing for us and we hope it will be worked up. Mr. Ware thinks the line can be built for $250 and has subscribed $25 and we will do the same.

THE Knights of Pythias had a big time Thursday night. After the first and second degrees were conferred on Messrs. W. L. McCarty and R. L. Hubble, respectively, the members and visitors repaired to John Meier's restaurant and enjoyed a delightful lunch. Mr. Meier had little notice for so large an undertaking, but he succeeded in setting a repast fit for the gods. The visiting knights were Messrs. A. C. Green and R. Zimmer, of Richmond, Letcher Owlsley, Joseph Haselden and Will Mattingly, of Lancaster, and they added largely to the pleasure of the evening.

THE case of Judge D. P. Bethuram, of Rockcastle, for forgery in connection with an application for a pension and also with filing a false claim, knowing the same to be false, was continued in the U. S. court at Louisville, after a demur to the indictment had been overruled. H. H. Baker, the principal witness, was absent and an attachment was issued for his arrest, with bond fixed at $500. This is the case in which Willis Adams' name is alleged to have been forged, the paper further falsely declaring that he was a justice of the peace.

THE press in the towns in which Miss Glascock, who with 20 of our young ladies is to give an entertainment at Walton's Opera House on the evening of the 20th, speaks in the highest terms of her ability as a Delsartean artist and reader and pronounces her entertainments decided successes. The Paris Kentuckian, Bourbon News, Harrodsburg Democrat, Nicholasville Journal and Frankfort Capital all unite in her praises and say her talent in reading is exceeded only by her grace and ease in Grecian posing.

LADIES HURT.—Thursday afternoon as Misses Mollie Harman and Jennie Huston were driving down the Fowler Hill near McKinney, a freight train came dashing along and their horse ran off, overturning the buggy and throwing them and the little child who was with them to the ground. Miss Huston escaped with a few bruises, and the child was not much hurt, but Miss Harman did not fare so well. She was knocked senseless and remained in an unconscious condition for several hours. The vehicle was completely wrecked and the horse considerably injured.

THE court of appeals has reversed the decision of the Pulaski court, which acquitted J. S. Wickersham for shooting Chief of Police Hughes.

In the county court yesterday the will of Peter Hassel was presented for probate, but a daughter, who thinks she hasn't been fairly provided for, filed notice of contest and it went over.

FIRE.—Mr. W. R. Gooch, who was in from McKinney yesterday, told us that the dwelling of Charles Delany near South Fork, was burned last week in the absence of the family and everything totally lost.

MRS. HARRIET E. GLASCOCK, Delsartean artist and reader, assisted by 20 of the best known and prettiest society girls of Stanford, will on the evening of the 20th present a Grecian entertainment at Walton's Opera House, the program of which will be published in our next issue.

A NERVOUS THIEF.—The heavy plate glass window of B. H. Danks, the jeweler, was smashed in Sunday about midnight and five of his handsome display of gold watches and a ring stolen, valued in all at about $150. Mrs. Wm. Rice, who lives across the street, was awakened by the noise and thinking it came from the window below her, had John Meier aroused, who went down and found the real state of affairs. Mrs. Rice saw the man but could not say whether he was white or black. Will Hester, who passed shortly before, saw a man with a brown suit and hat standing near the window, and says he was either a white man or a mulatto. Will Embry was in the

HANDSOME HOSTESS OF RUSSIAN LEGATION AT WASHINGTON.

Sister Anne Ayres—Swings Her Censer. Female Education—The Order of Gray Ladies—Don'ts For Mothers—Short Waists—Unique Dr. Mary Walker.

Mme. de Meck, wife of the secretary of the Russian minister, is one of the most popular of the foreign ladies in Washington. As the wife of the new Russian minister is abroad, Mme. de Meck will continue to officiate as the official hostess of the Russian legation. She and the secretary occupy a pretty home in Connecticut avenue, hard by the great Leiter mansion, and its mistress, who is very young, very beautiful and altogether lovely, is tall and stately and has a superb physique. Her hair is deep black and is coiled high in Russian fashion, with always a handsome circle of diamonds banding it when indoors.

She has yet to master our language, although she understands the more common words and phrases, but French, Spanish and her own native tongue are alike familiar. In reply to the question how she likes America she will say: "Ver' much. I no go out ye so much as the papers have me there. I was not at the White House at diplomatic reception, and yet za have me in one ver' pretty gown." Her home breathes an air of orientalism. The drawing room is hung with embroidered bands and banners and other hangings of delicate and ingenious design—all the work of her own hands. Like all Russian ladies music has great charms for her, and her grand piano in the corner is a source of great comfort to her in her new surroundings.

Sister Anne Ayres.

Sister Anne Ayres, the pioneer in founding sisterhoods in the Protestant Episcopal church in this country, died recently from bronchitis at St. Luke's hospital, on Cathedral heights. Miss Ayres was born in London, Jan. 3, 1816. In 1836 she came to this country with her mother, four sisters and a brother. Miss Ayres had been well educated, and through the efforts of Henry Carey, the president of the Phoenix bank, she obtained a number of pupils in prominent families of the city.

Miss Ayres continued her work as a tutor for nine years. In the summer of 1845 she took the steps that resulted in the formation of the Sisterhood of the Holy Communion. That summer she spent at College Point with the sister and niece of the Rev. Dr. Muhlenberg, the rector of St. Paul's church. One Sunday Dr. Muhlenberg preached a sermon on Jephthah's vow. Miss Ayres was deeply interested in the sermon, and after carefully considering the matter she decided to devote her life to church and charitable work. On All Saints' day, 1845, she was ordained by Dr. Muhlenberg as a Sister of the Holy Communion. The ceremony attending the founding of the first sisterhood in the church was very simple, and no one witnessed it except the sexton of the church.

From that time she was known as Sister Anne. She established a school at 330 Sixth avenue. When the cholera visited this country, she rendered valuable assistance in the hospitals as a volunteer nurse. She was alone in the sisterhood until 1853, when Miss Brevoort joined her, and took the name of Sister Meta. In 1854 Sister Catherine entered the order, and three years later Sister Harriet became a member. During this period an infirmary was established and the work of the sisterhood was much extended. In 1855 the infirmary erected by John H. Swift was completed, and it became the home of the sisters.

Sister Anne devoted her time to the two infirmaries, the St. Luke's hospital and the Church Industrial colony at St. Johnland.—New York Sun.

Swings Her Censer.

The modern woman has taken to burning incense at her own shrine. The latest thing in jeweled smelling bottles is a veritable censer that swings from milady's chatelaine, and, when lighted, diffuses a delicate perfume and a tiny cloud of incense.

At a New York operatic matinee the other day an elegant young woman in a tailor made gown and a fetching millinery get up produced her whilom smelling salts at the most affecting moment of the performance. As she snapped open the cover and a fine streak of circumambient vapor curled softly up and stolt athwart the footlights, there was a craning of necks in her neighborhood for two whole minutes, while the women tried to investigate this latest idea in elegance.

This new perfume burner, as it is called, has displaced the tiny bottles of aromatic salts so dear to the hearts of

He Got Him.

Rasher—Hello, Crashier! I hear that you were at the capital trying to secure a franchise for the Sky Rocket road. Did you see Assemblyman Tanker from your district?

Craisher—Yes.

Rasher—Did you get him interested in the project?

Craisher—Yes; $20,000 in bonds, and $10,000 preferred.—Puck.

Those Long Sermons.

It is seldom that a university professor is noted for his wit, but the one quoted by Tit-Bits surely had this quality. When asked by a preacher what he thought of his sermon he replied:

"I heard in it what I hope never to hear again."

"What was that?"

"The clock strike twice."

But, Are They?

If women were level-headed, we think it is safe to state, in a half day or so why they could get a hat on straight.

—L. A. W. Bulletin.

OVERSTRAINED HIMSELF.

Saufty—No, I'm not very well, you know, I've thought once or twice lately.

Topsy—Good gracious! And then you wonder why you're ill. You shouldn't do such reckless things—Vogue.

Her Reason.

Husband—Why do you pay the newspapers at advertising rates to exaggerate the success of our party, Helen? It was a colorless affair, and some of our guests seemed really miserable.

Wife—So many sent regrets and stayed away, dear! I want to make them feel miserable, too.—Truth.

The Leading Lady.

Reporter—Did you ever play in tragedy?

Comedian—Yes, years ago.

Reporter—Tell me about it.

Comedian—Well, the woman who is now my wife was the leading lady, and I believe there was a minister mixed up in it.—To Date.

Correcting Impressions.

The Tramp—Appearances is deceitful, mum. Yer might think I'm a strong man, an' yer might think I drink; but it ain't so.

Mrs. Mum—And you might think I'm going to give you something; but that ain't so, either.—Puck.

Broke the Silence.

For a long time after he had succeeded in inserting himself through the door at three a. m., she regarded him in silence.

At length she spoke. Also she spoke at length.—Westchester Globe.
